ELGIN SPRINGS.

The Elgin Spring House is now open for the reception of visitors. The Proprietor having made improvements in his house and grounds, feels confident of giving satisfaction to all.

Those who wish for information as to the Medicinal qualities of the Springs, I am allowed to refer to Doctors C. L. Allen, Wm. P. Russell, Middlebury; A. Bradford and P. Maynard, Vergennes; and Jonathan Crane, Ferrisburgh.

These Springs are situated about three miles from the City of Vergennes, Vermont, in the most delightful part of Lake Champlain Valley; and are highly recommended by visitors of pleasure, as a safe change for rare sports to be had in field or field! And to the invalid that rarity and quiet so much desired.

He has also a every accommodation for Plunge, Shower and Ward BATHS, and hopes by continued patronage to secure a proper portion of patronage.

SOLOMON ALLEN,
Panton, Vermont.

Read the following from:

New Orleans, N. J., June 30, 1850.

Mrs. Sanderson, —Take the liberty of sending you a letter which may be of use to those who are suffering as I have done. I have resented the business of dealing in STOVES, including all patterns, including all patterns, during the past month or two at this date. Among my stoves may be found a THATCHER'S Hot Blast Cooking Stove.

This Stove took the first Premium at the American Institute, and was exhibited at the Fair, and at the Worcester Fair, in Massachusetts. One of the peculiar properties of this Stove is that steam can be broiled in three minutes without any smoke or odor escaping into the room. The above cut shows the form of the Stove.

The celebrated Square Open Yankee Notion The Tudor Stove.

The Canada Stove, 3 sizes.

Also the best and most approved patterns of Continental Parlor and Bed Stoves to be found in Troy and Albany.

Toggenburg, a general assortment of Bed, Round and Heart, Iron, American and English Steel, Hobnail and Tin Ware, Brass Knuckles, Copper and Iron Pumps, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead Zinc, Cat and wrought Nails—all sizes, Horse Nails and Shoes, Nail Rods, Sad Irons, Pots, Pans, Skillets, Trivets and Coal Shovels, &c.

The author would like to say that the N. has been determined not to be EXCLUDED any longer in this section of country. An examination of the above stock and prices is advised.

THE JOB WORK done in a workmanlike manner and on short notice.
